Our association and cooperation with socio-cultural organizations have helped us to fulfil our social obligations.

We have also strived for the timely and effective utilization of not only P.D funds but plan funds and grants & aids from the University Grants Commission. It is the Commission's encouragement and support that serve to motivate higher educational institutions to take up such academic and developmental endeavours, which otherwise will not be economically and practically feasible for them. The purpose of education system mentioned in NEP is to develop good human being capable of rational thoughts and action possessing sympathy and empathy, courage and resilience, scientific temper and creative imagination.

To achieve holistic development in children, NEP emphasizes the development of languages, vocationalization of education, compulsory education through mother tongue / local languages up to fifth class, promotion of classical languages as well as tribal languages, multidisciplinary courses with multiple exit options. NEP 2020 assures appropriate certification even after completion of one year as well as diploma after completion of two years which enables students to discontinue one discipline and opt another one. NEP proposes that teacher education should be brought under multidisciplinary universities as an integrated B. Ed degree with four years duration.

As far as Sanskrit language and literature is concerned, it is given importance as a classical language and included as an optional language in three language formula. Sanskrit was neglected and sidelined since Macaulay minutes was introduced by British government in 1835. Sanskrit received no importance in various education commissions as well as education policies of independent India. NEP 2020 affirms the introduction of Indian Knowledge System along with modern disciplines in the curriculum which will enable to produce a new generation with holistic development and have pride on the nation.

Sanskrit education has much scope as it is a learning subject throughout the world. As yoga and Indian philosophy drew much attention in the foreign world, having knowledge in these disciplines along with knowledge of Sanskrit can be converted into dollar earning profession.
