CHILD MARRIAGE FREE INDIA – SAFE CHILDHOOD SAFE INDIA CAMPAIGN

Kailash Satyarthi children foundation (KSCF) launched the initiative titled as child marriage free India – safe childhood safe India on 16/10/2022 to make students and citizens aware of the prevention and prohibition of child marriage. Child Marriage Free India was launched by women leaders in partnership with civil society organizations and state government agencies in more than 235,000 villages, cities and settlements on October 16, 2022, reaching more than 300 million women, girls, and their male allies. Many of the women and girls leading the campaign have escaped or survived child marriages themselves. The campaign seeks to more than halve the rate of child marriage in India by 2025 – from 23.3% to 10%. The Child Marriage Free India campaign is part of our Access to Justice program, which ensures justice delivery to children who have been trafficked for labor or sexual exploitation, and victims of child sexual abuse. The Prohibition of Child Marriage Act 2006 came into force on 1 November 2007 in India. It forbids child marriages, and protects and provides assistance to the victims of child marriages. NCC Cadets took oath against child marriage.
